1984: A YEAR OF CHANGE

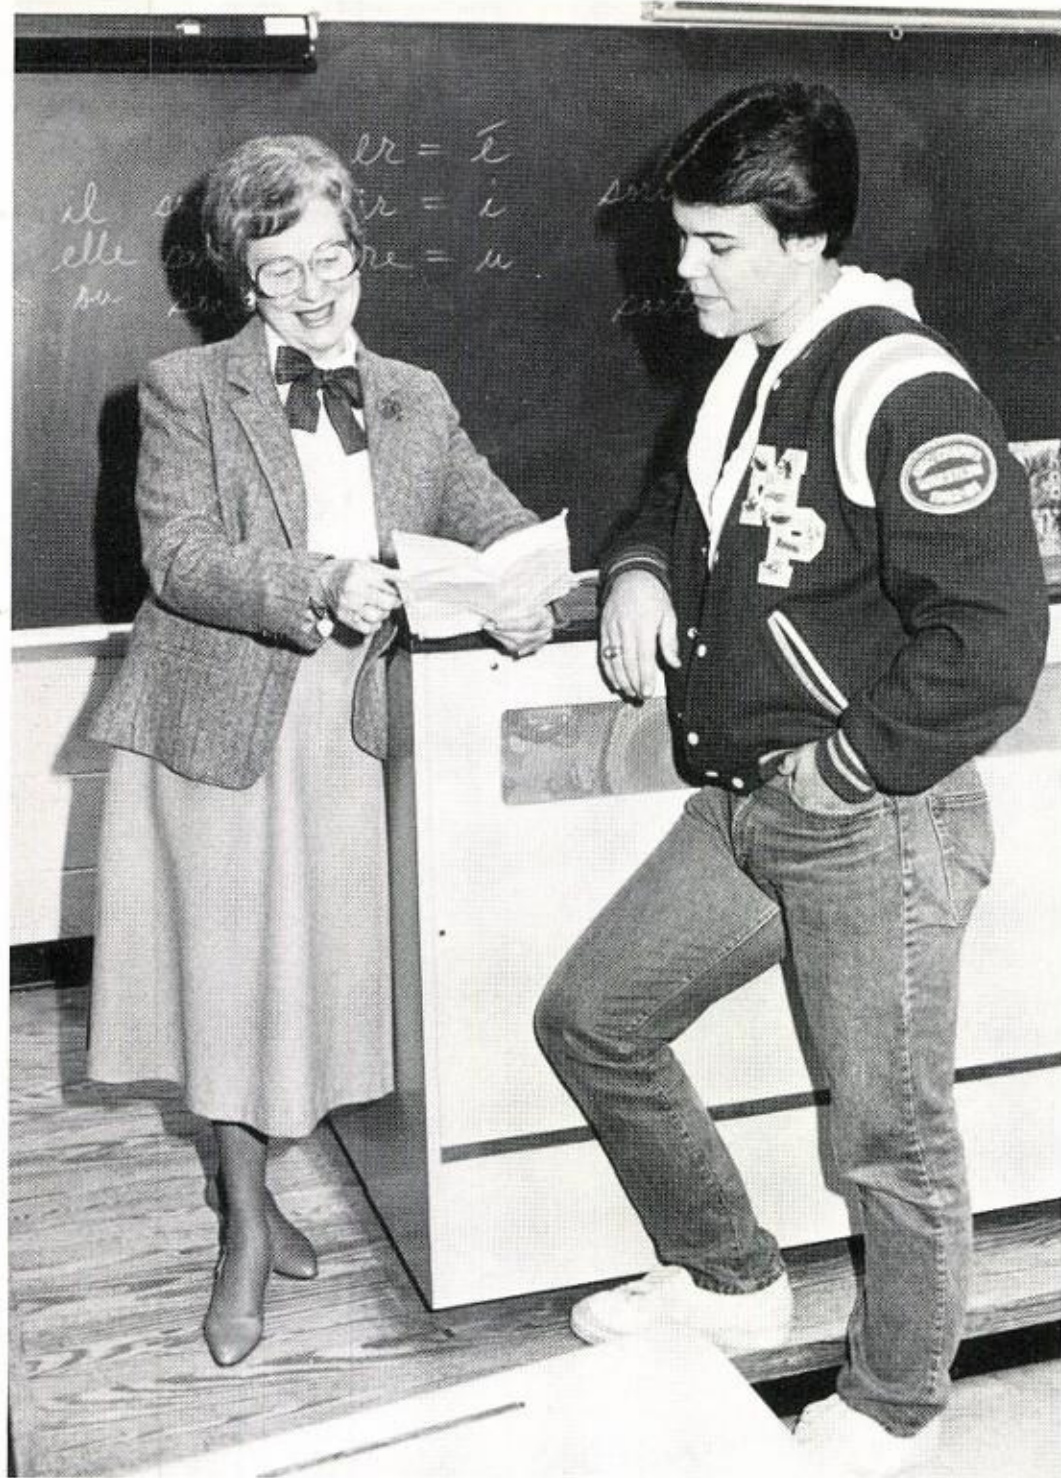

In 1948 when George Orwell wrote his novel 1984, he wrote of a world so radically different that people have feared this year for decades. The famed year of change has arrived. We are 1984.

May we present to you in tiger-speak our own 1984 TIGER ROAR and our year of change.

Mount Pleasant
High School
Mount Pleasant,
North Carolina
Volume XXXVII

We are fortunate that our community and our school is constantly growing, and with growth comes change. 1984 is indeed a year of change for us. (tigerspeak, 1984)

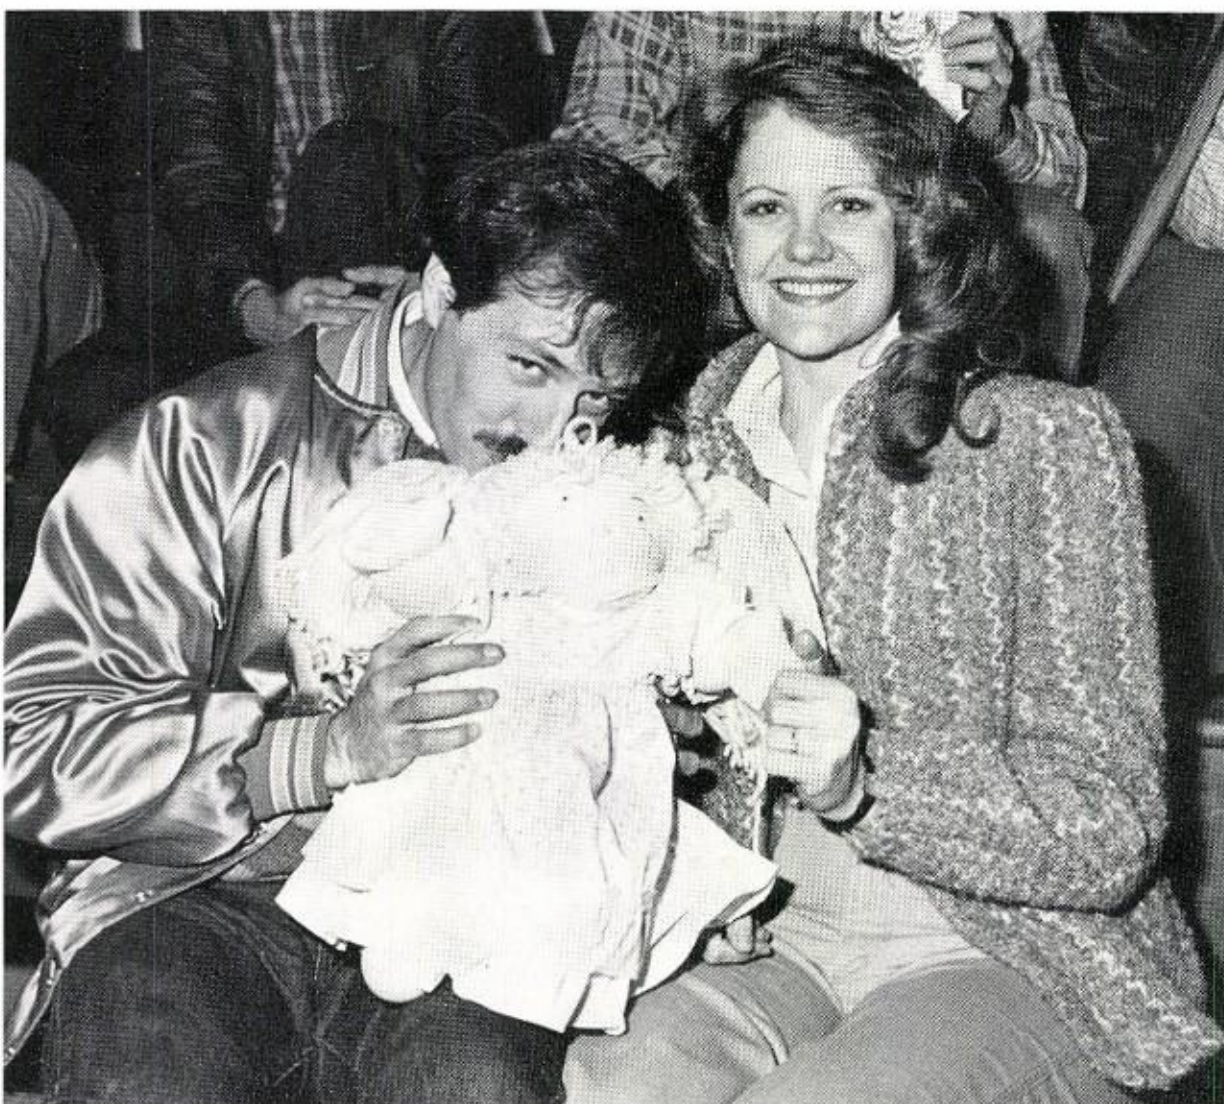

Bonjour! Il fait beau; il fait chaud; il fait du soleil. We knew you first through our brothers and sisters and met you ourselves our sophomore year. Teaching us about another culture, you broadened our world, and remembering your own teenage years, you understood us and trusted us . . . trusted us enough to take us to the Biltmore House, to Raleigh for the Beta Convention, and to Canada. For those of us who traveled with you, these will be among our fondest memories.

Now it is time for us to leave and discover more about ourselves and our changing world. It is with thanks and appreciation as we the Class of 1984 bid you "adieu" by dedicating our TIGER ROAR to you,

Louise Brumley Miller

You, too, showed us another world. We came to the Middle School together in 1978, so naturally we feel a closeness to you. You taught us technique, rearranged our structure, and instilled in us a sense of pride. We have frustrated you, but at contest time we were always ready for performance. May there always be a leader in our future who gets our attention with a smile and a wink, and with finesse begins the concert.

With the same pride that you instilled in us, we the Class of 1984 pay tribute to you,
 Timothy Howard Hodgins

Miss Mount Pleasant High Laura Walker

Senior girls were nominated for Miss Mount Pleasant High by the senior class. The nominees were then voted upon by the student body. Laura Walker was selected Miss Mount Pleasant High. Laura also competed in the Miss Merry Christmas pageant sponsored by Kannapolis Chamber of Commerce. Contestants were judged on beauty and in individual interviews. Competing with queens from South Rowan, Central Cabarrus, A.L. Brown, and Northwest, Laura was chosen Miss Merry Christmas, 1984.

Homecoming Attendants

Being chosen as one of Mount Pleasant's five Homecoming Attendants is a great honor. From the five lucky young ladies, one will be chosen Homecoming Queen. The selection of nominees for the Homecoming Court is made by the varsity football team. Chosen as the 1983 Homecoming Attendants were Lisa McRorie, Laura Walker, Jane Swaringen, Amy Moose, and Susan Goodman.

After the five attendants are chosen, the student body votes for one girl as their choice of queen. The results of the voting are kept secret until the half-time ceremonies.

Then the special moment comes--five very pretty, excited, and nervous attendants become . . . a new Homecoming Queen and her court.

Miss Senior

Greg Hinson and Susan Goodman were chosen Mr. and Miss Senior 1983-'84. The selection was made by members of the faculty. Academic achievement is characteristic of this honor. Participation in extracurricular activities and school spirit are also considered in the selection process. Finally, these students are expected to be model citizens. Congratulations to Greg and Susan who reflect these qualities. (tigerspeak, 1984)

Marshals

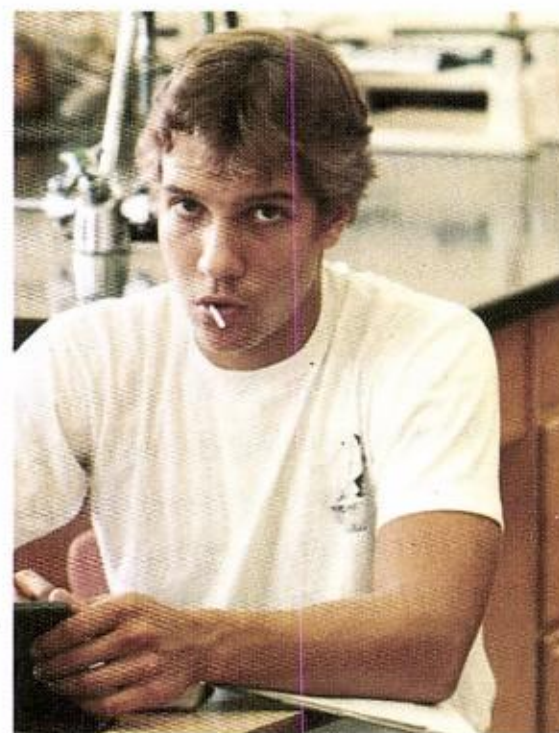

Marshals for the 1982-83 year were Susan Goodman, Susan Bost, Kim Whittington, Laura Walker, chief; Beth Winecoff, and Tammy Williams. These students were chosen on the basis of their grade point averages. Duties of the marshals were ushering and greeting guests, leading the '83 graduating class to their seats during both Baccalaureate and graduation ceremonies. It is an honor and privilege to be chosen as a marshal. (tigerspeak, 1984)

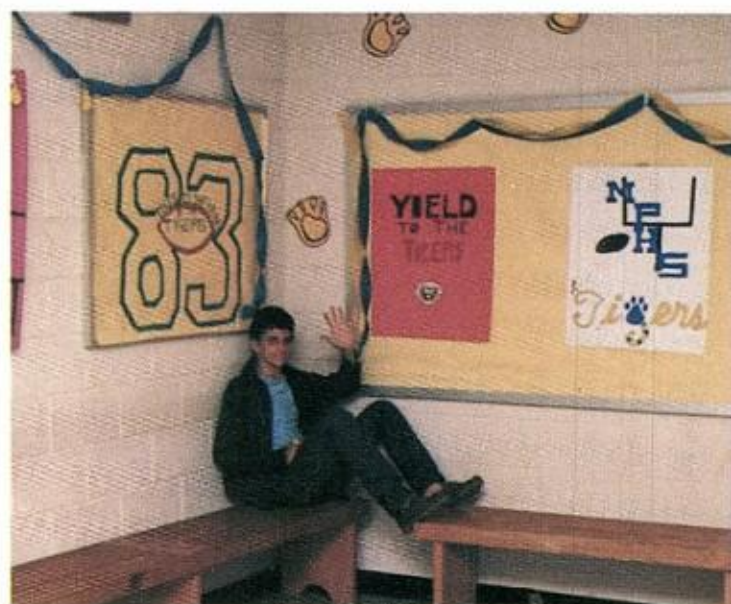

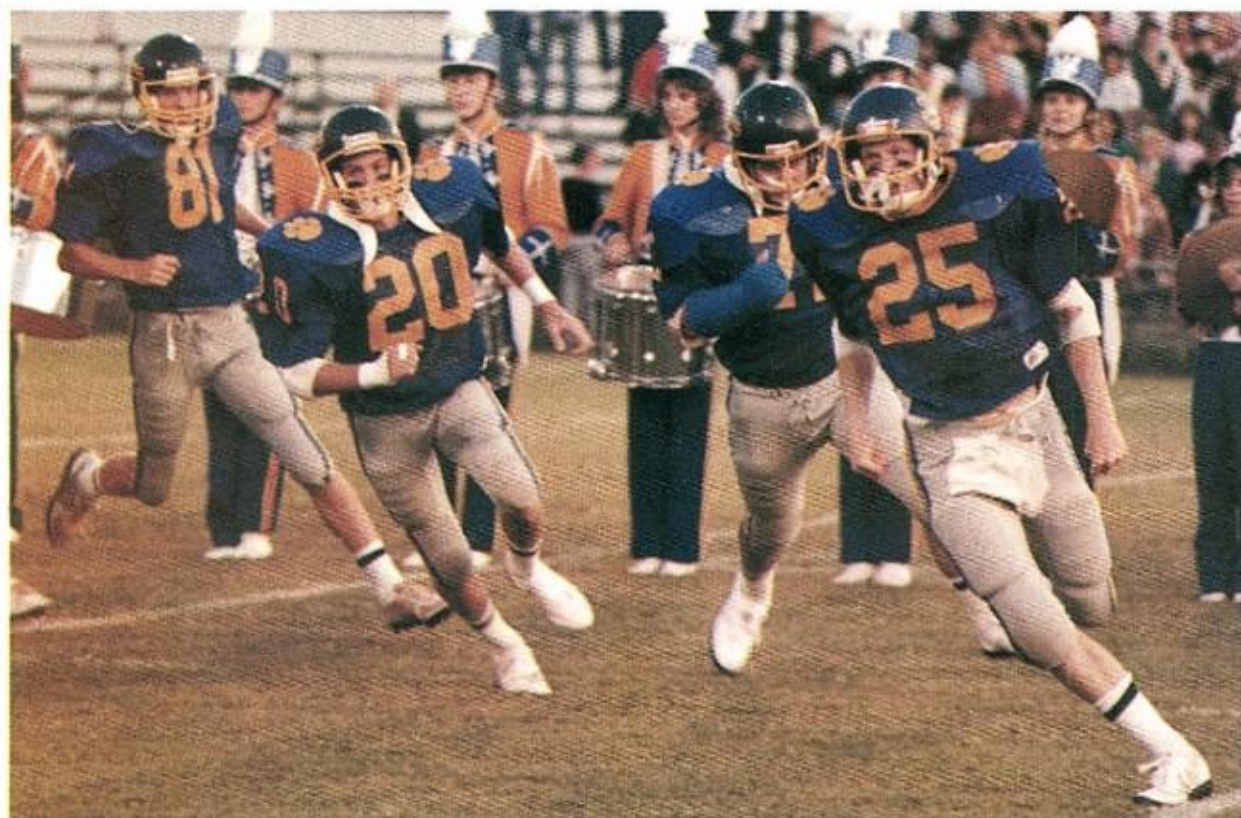

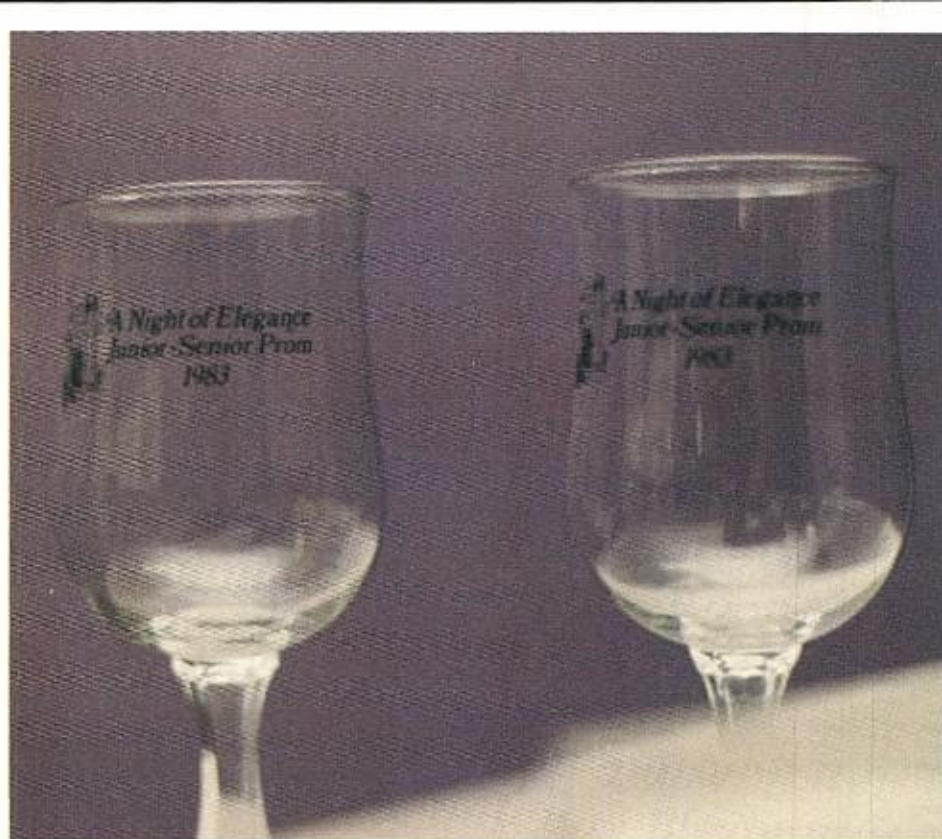

Seniors

As the class of '84, we have shared four years of high school, and many of us have been together even longer. We have shared championships, lunch, secrets, disappointments, Saturday nights up town, and homework.

Through our relationships with others, we have grown, and we have faced changes in administration, faculty, academics, sports, and ourselves.

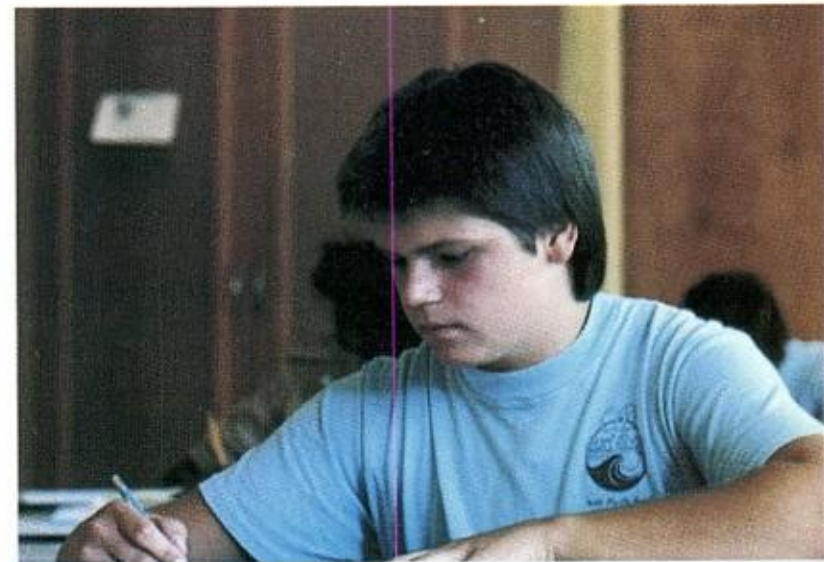

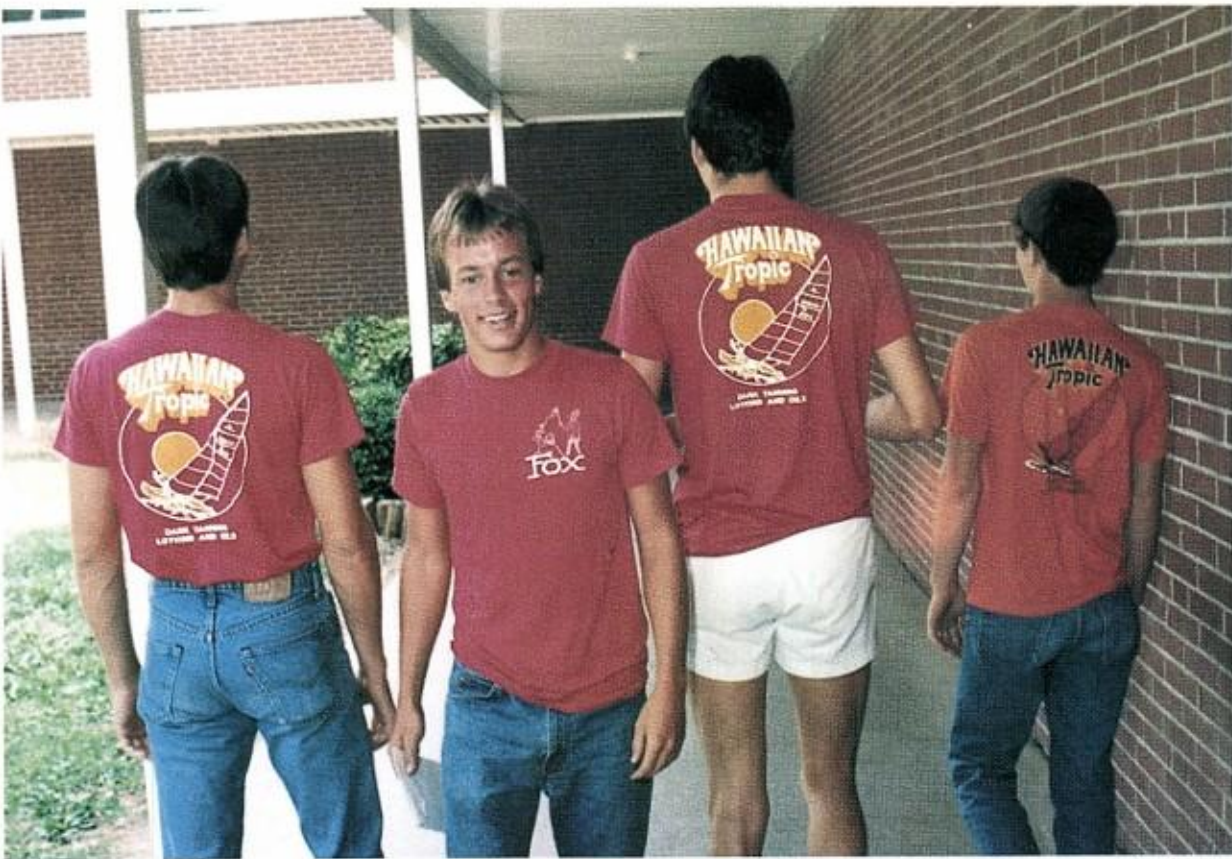

As a class, we will be graduating and preparing for even greater changes in our lives, but we will always cherish our memories of our Senior year at MPHS. (tigerspeak, 1984)

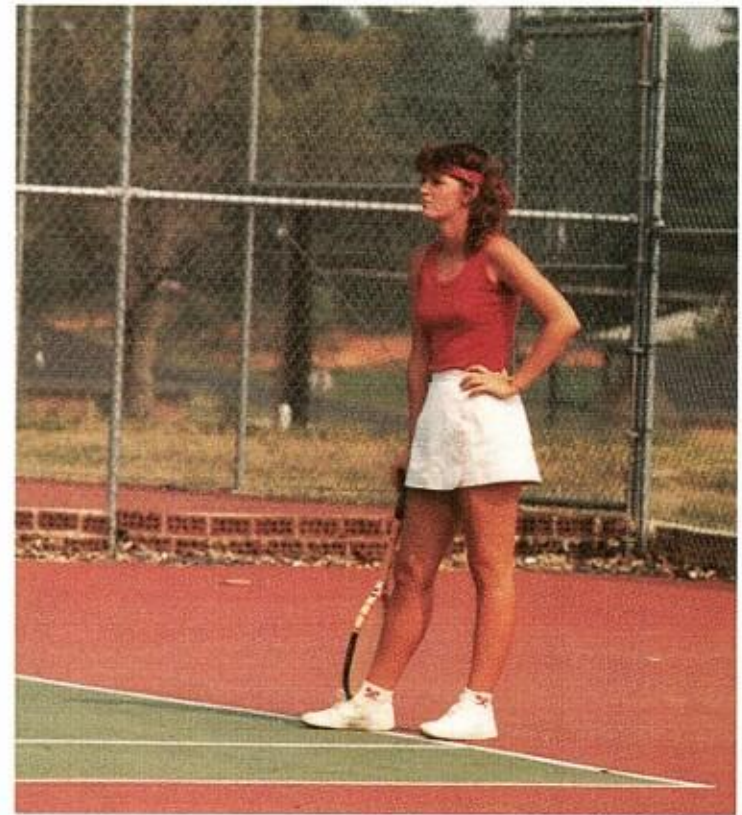

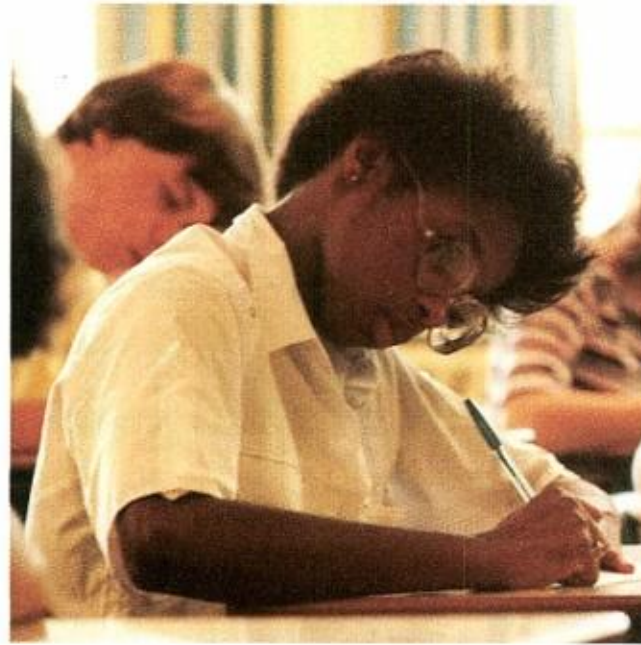

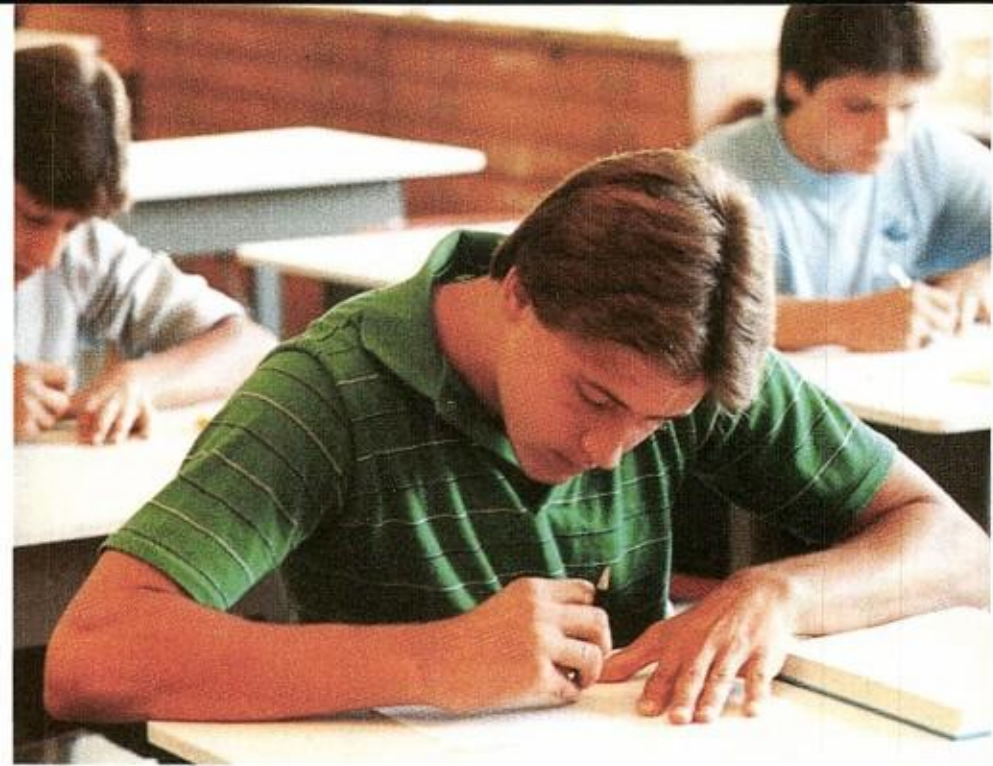

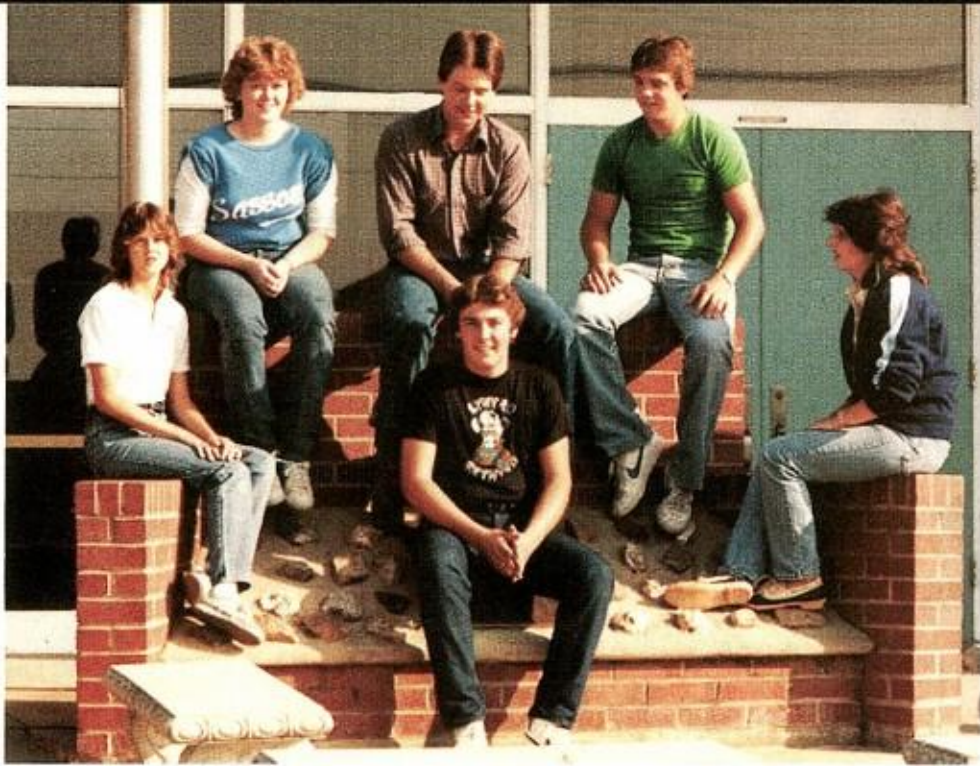

"A memory is what is left to keep you going after the rest is gone."

Senior Class Prayer

Dear Lord,

We have so many things to be grateful for: our ability to learn, to laugh, and to love those who have become a part of our lives for the past twelve years.

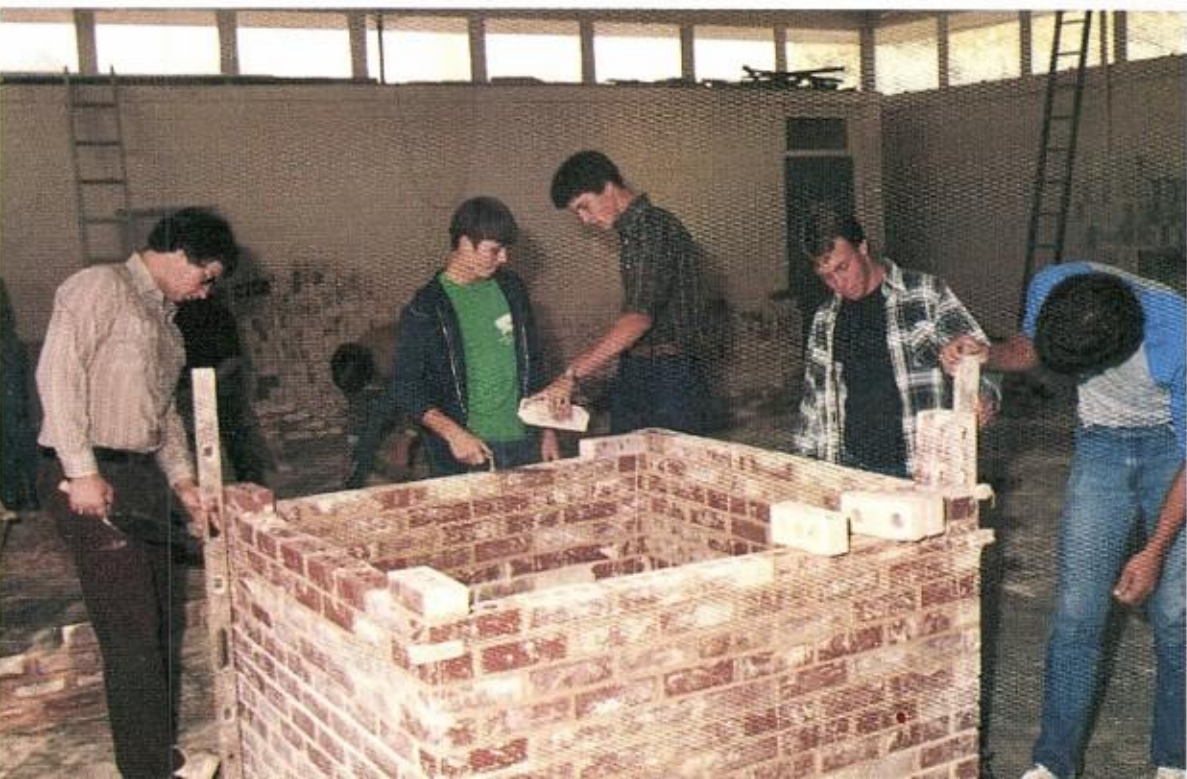

We have had so many dreams that you allowed to become realities. We have shared each day with special friends, and through your love we have made many special memories.

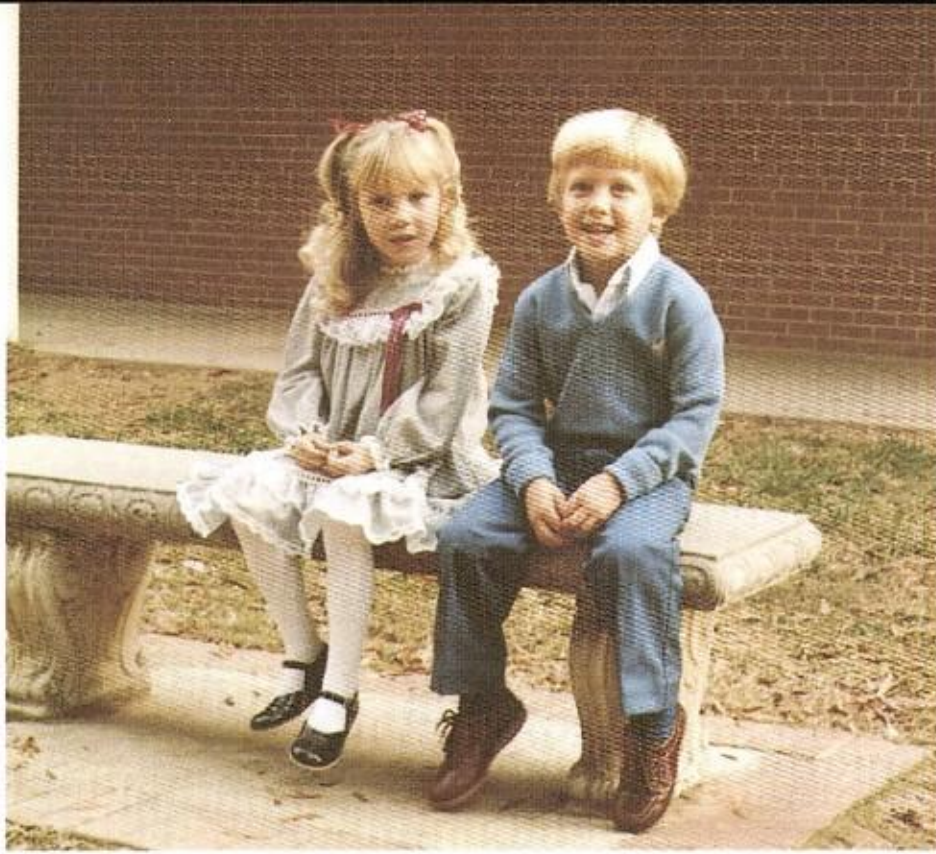

Soon we will be facing a different direction. We ask that you will be with each of us, guiding us as we make new memories.

Thank you for all that we have shared together, and we pray that these past twelve years will live in our hearts forever.

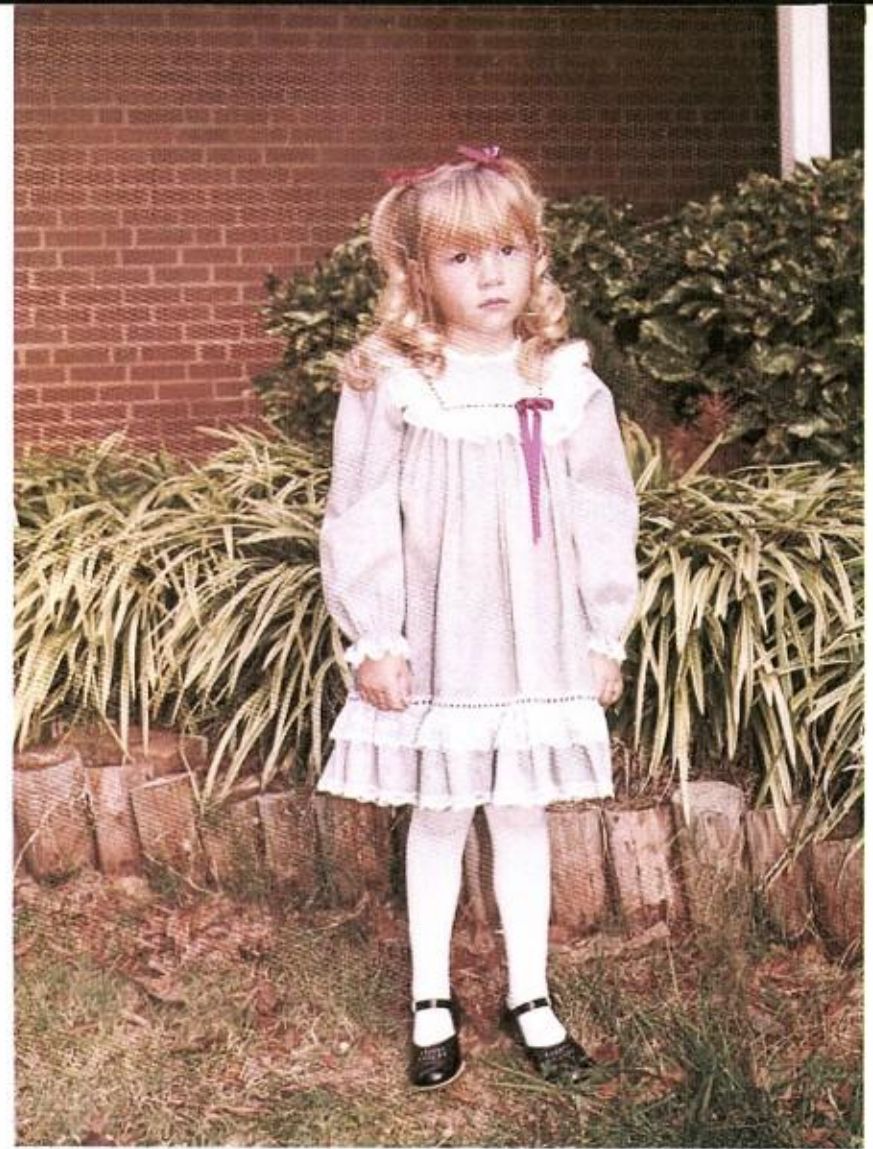

In Jesus' Name We Pray,
Amen.

Mascots Little Miss Emily Catherine Shouse and Master Patrick Lee Brafford

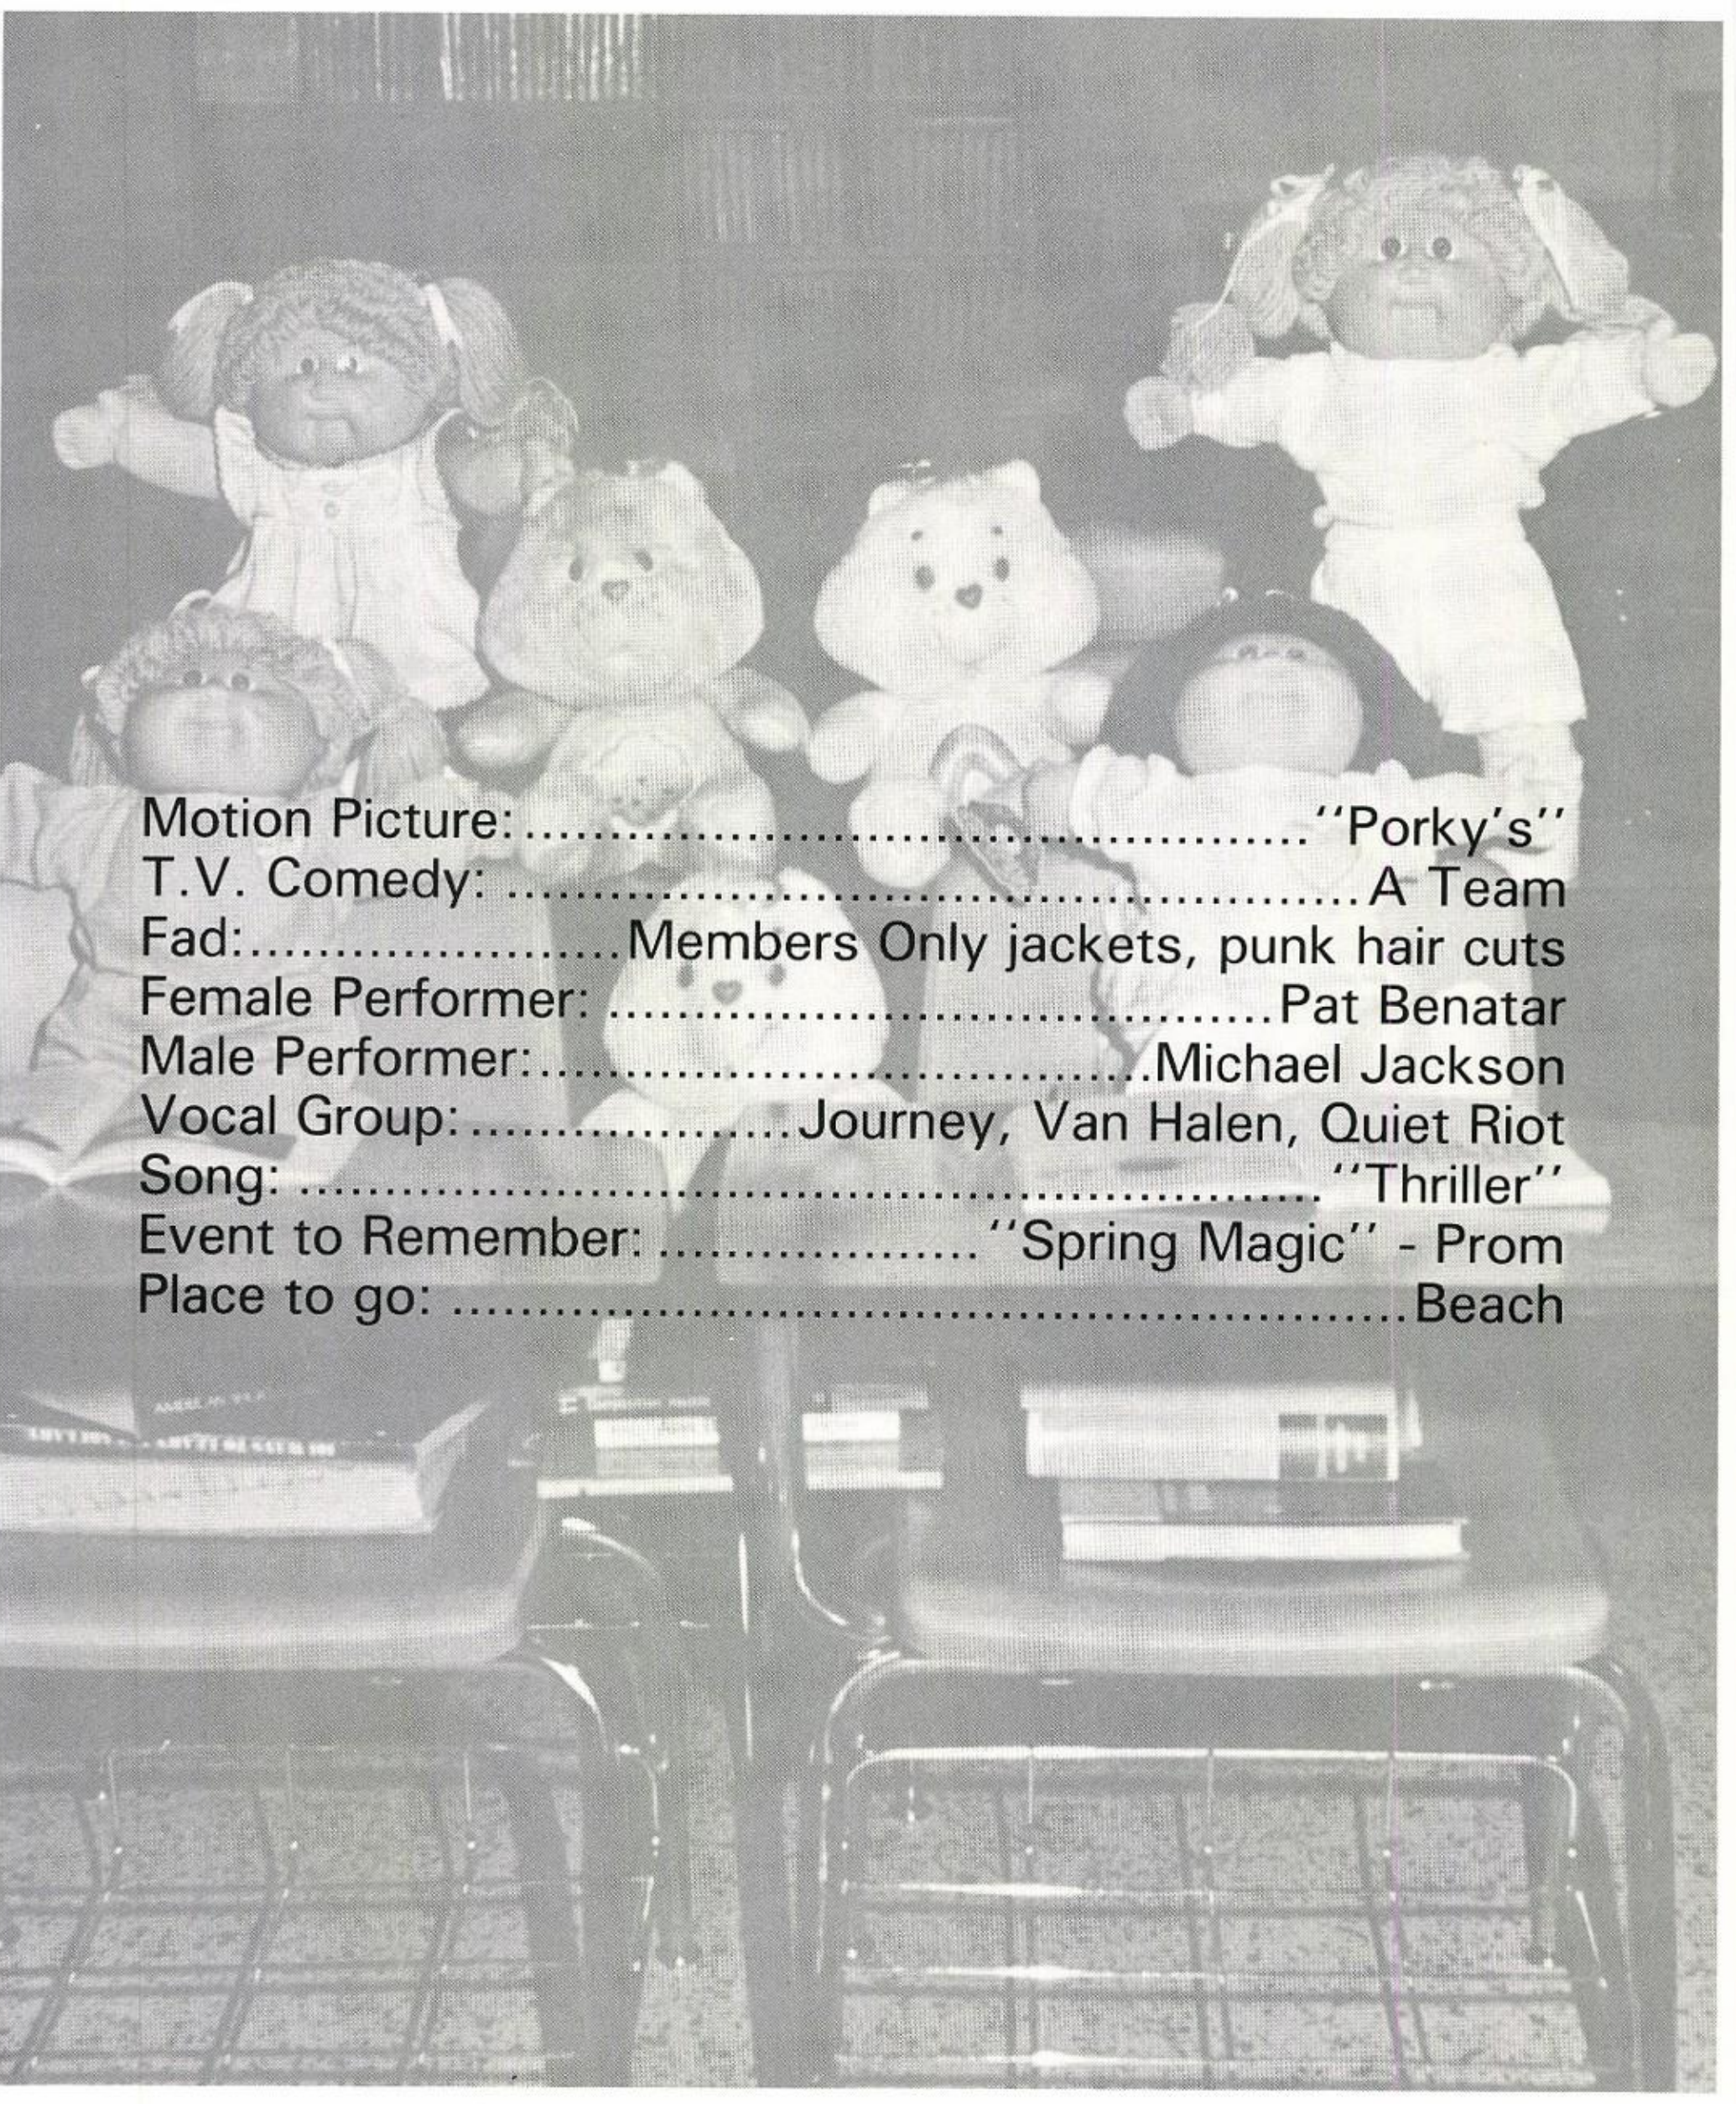

Emily, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Shouse, and Patrick, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Brafford, were chosen by the senior class to be mascots for the graduating ceremonies. (tigerspeak, 1984)

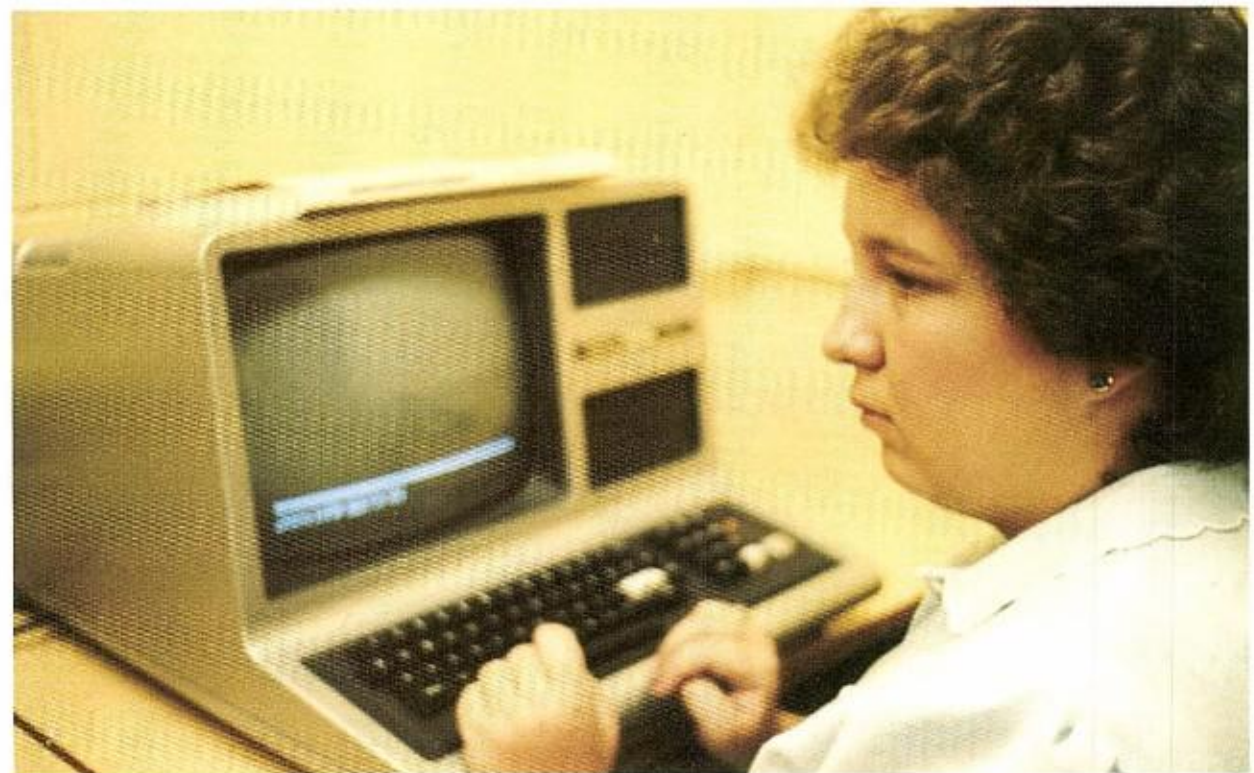

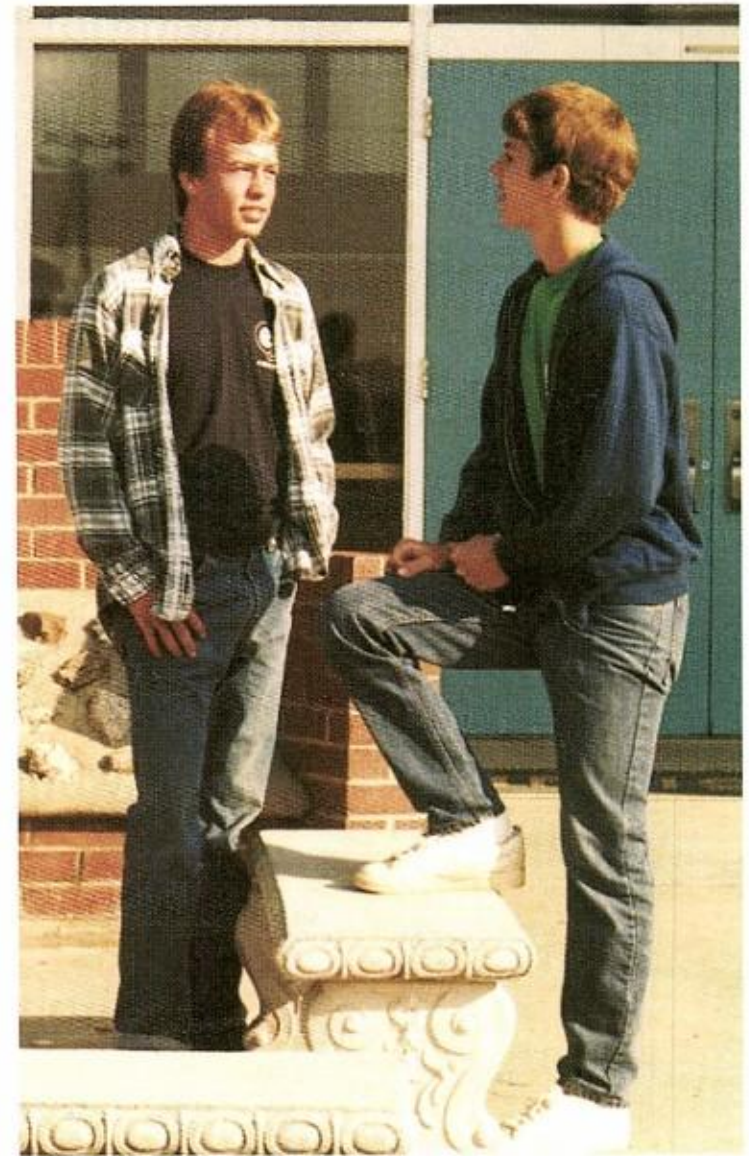

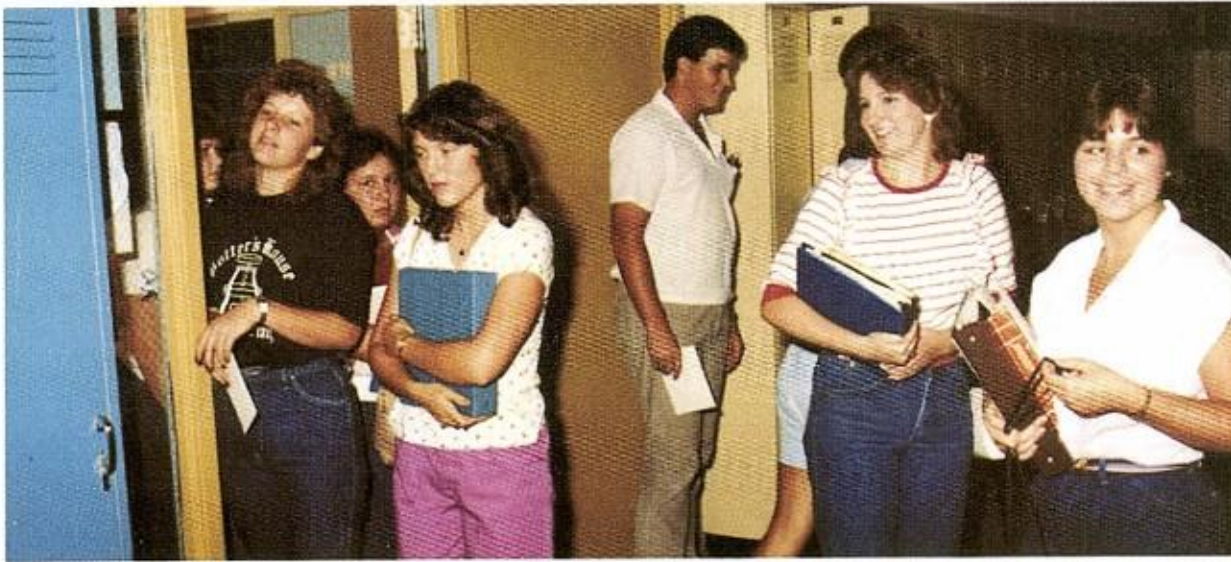

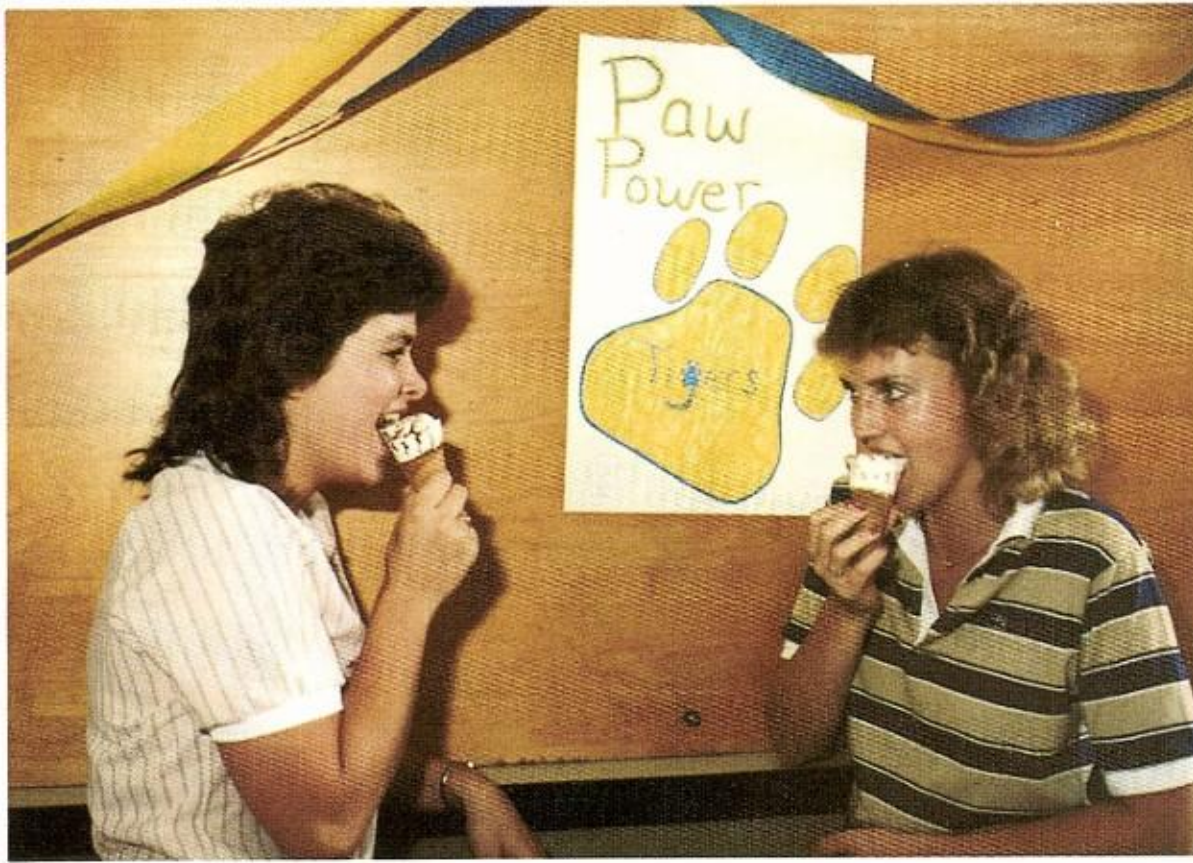

Traditionally, the seniors had chosen the yellow rose as their class flower. However, the class of 1984 voted to add blue violets to the roses, thus representing both school colors. (tigerspeak, 1984)

One of the many changes we faced this year was the merger of the Concord City School System with the Cabarrus County School System. With the merger, of course, came a new school board: Mr. Sam Davis Jr., Mr. Harold Hartsell, Mr. Bob Weaver, Mr. Jerry Pierce, Mrs. Tina Loving, Chairman; Mrs. Betty Alston, and Mr. George Monk (not pictured.)

Like the rest of the school, the annual staff also has changed a great deal this year. Switching to new photography and publishing companies and teaching the eighteen new staff members-the majority of the staff-how to crop pictures, lay out pages, and count copy only added to the normal challenge of putting together a yearbook.

Somehow we managed, though, through hard work, long hours, and many dedicated staffers. I would like to say a special thank you to Lisa Pait, who was more of a co-editor than an assistant editor. Her steady work and sweet nature made deadlines and picture days less hectic. I also want to thank Duane Miller for undertaking not only the responsibilities of the sports section, but becoming indispensable in other areas as well. Most of all, I would like to thank Mrs. Sharon Barringer. No one can realize how much she puts into our annual each year. This book would not have been possible without her. Her dedication, work, leadership, time and love made publishing our annual both rewarding and as enjoyable as possible.

Again I would like to thank everyone who helped put together our yearbook. Working with them as editor has been the best experience of my senior year and has created many special memories.

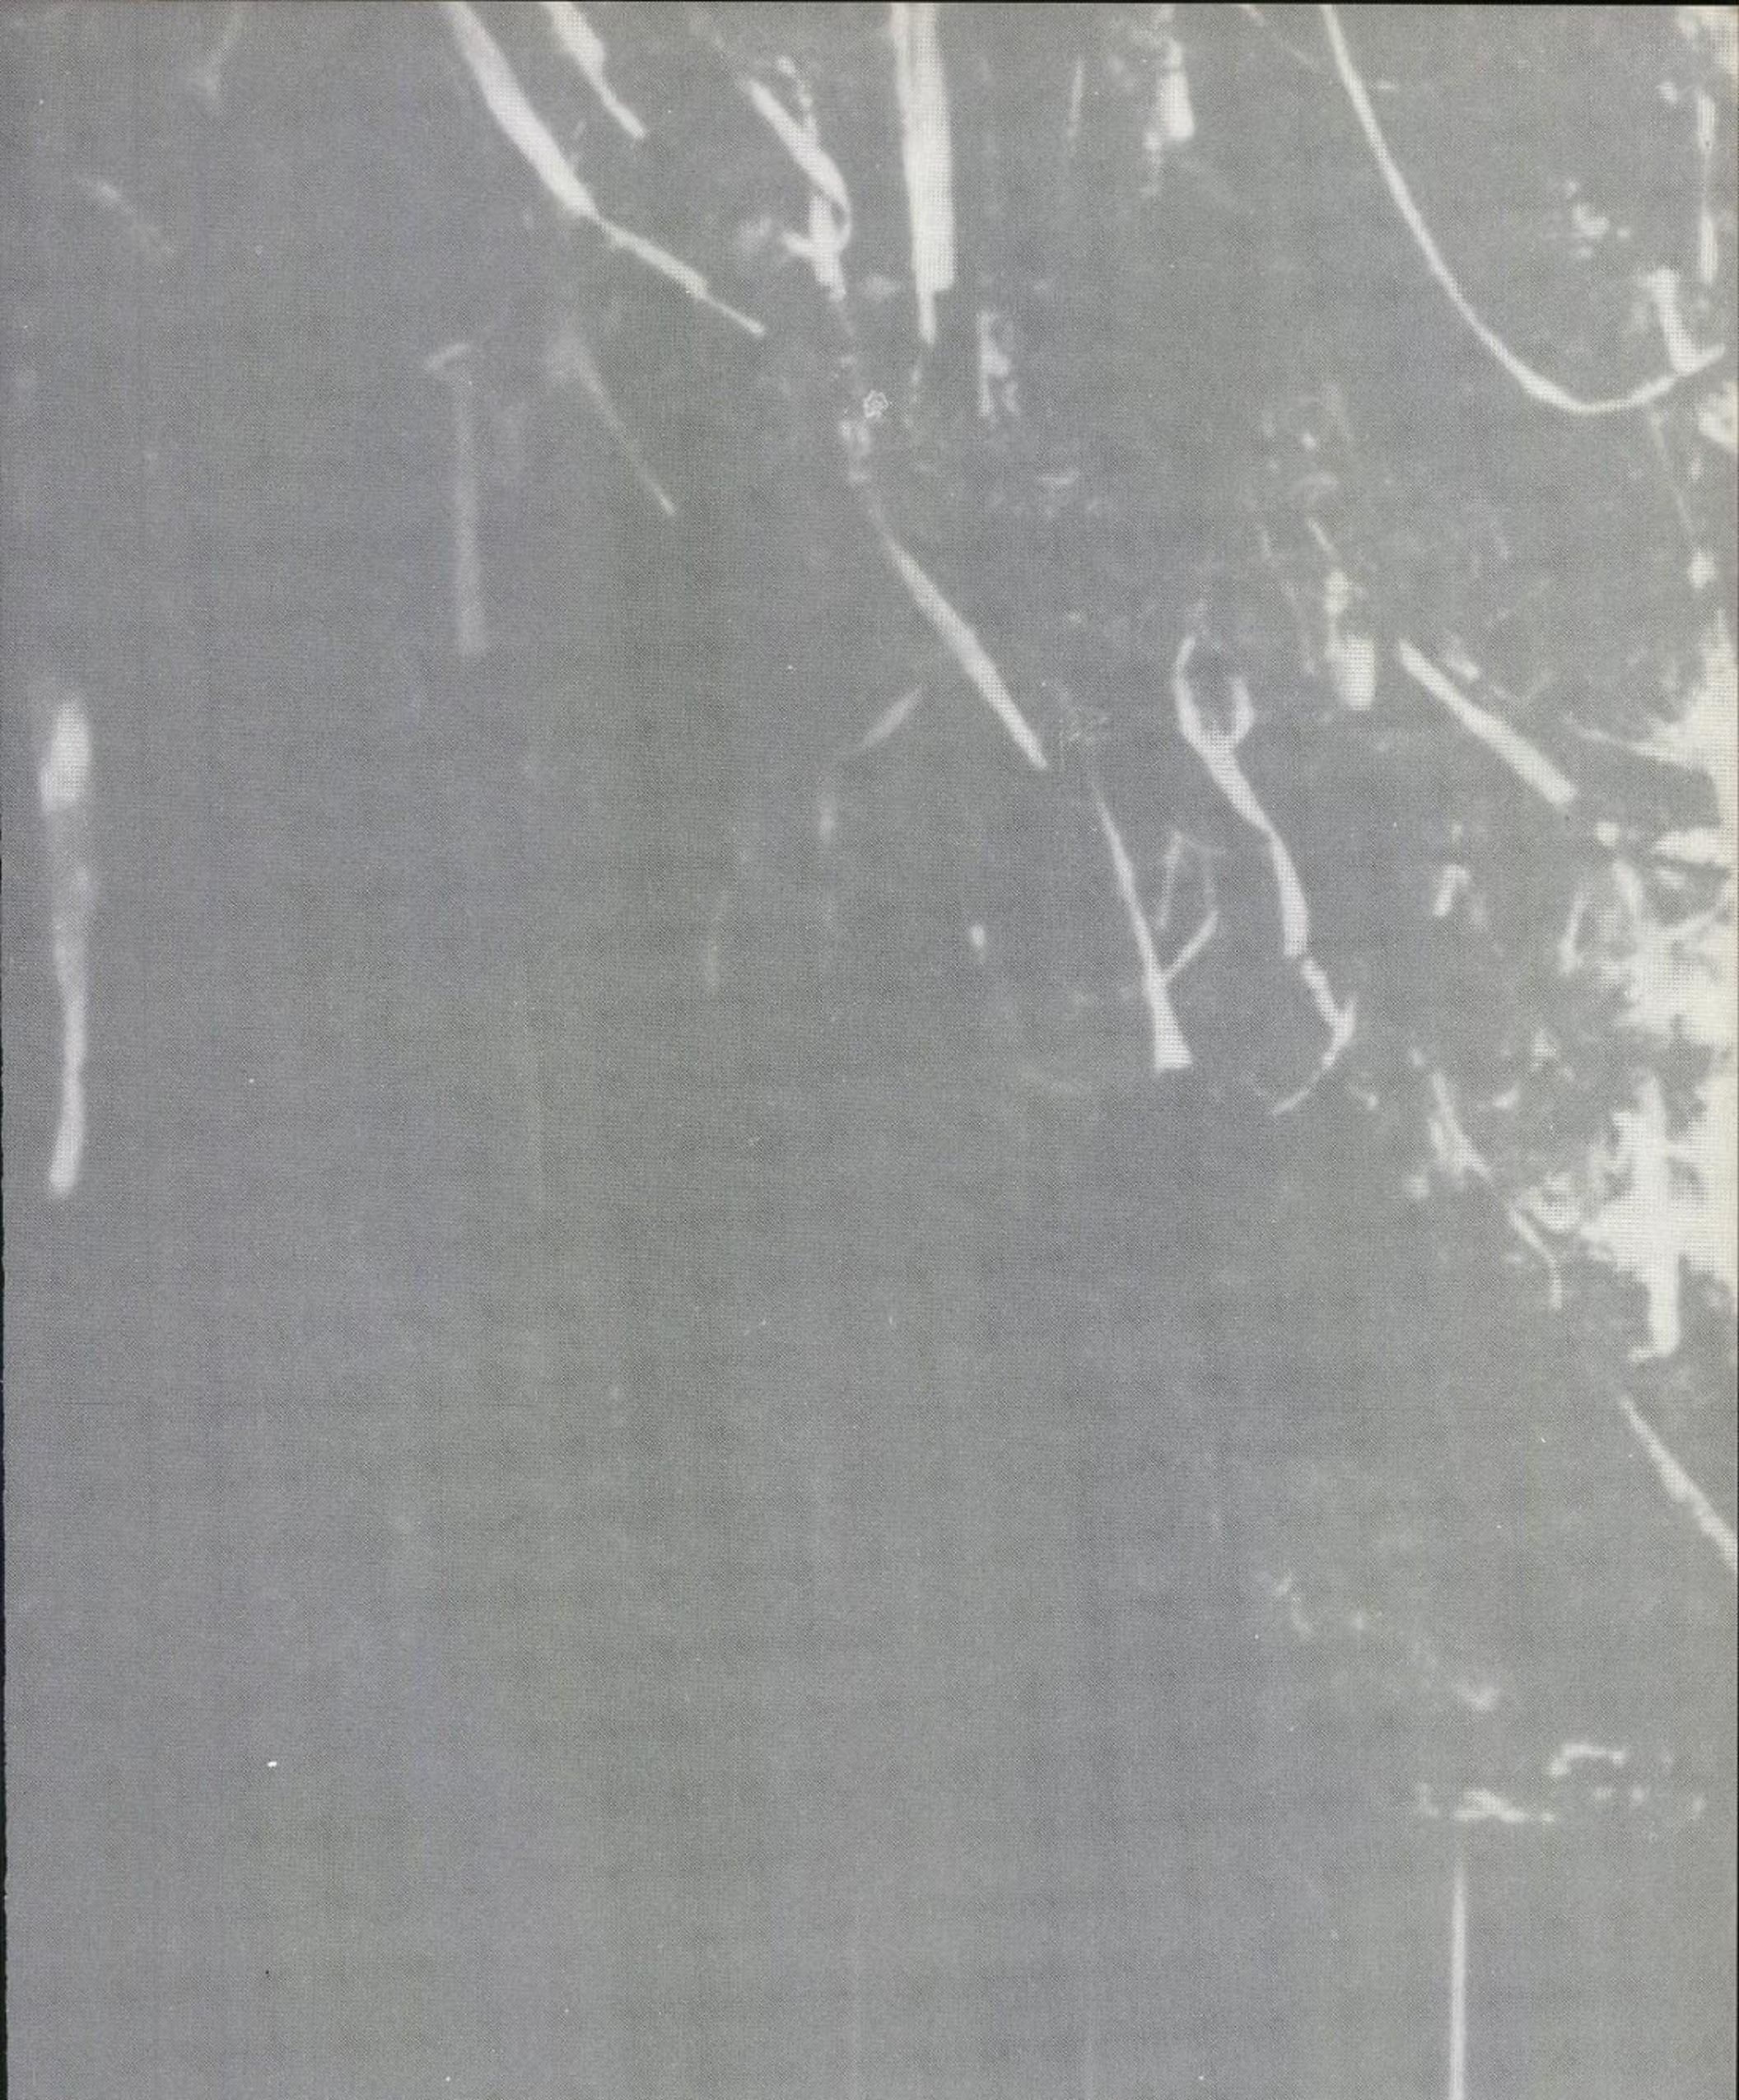

The 1983-84 staff proudly presents to you the 1984 TIGER ROAR.

WHO SAYS PRIDE DOESN'T COUNT?

That's what some critics say about American workers. They have no pride in their work, in their jobs or in the products they are making.

We don't agree. We know it is not true at Cannon.

Productivity, quality and customer service — the basics for manufacturing and selling consumer goods — continue to improve . . . rapidly.

To encourage and recognize individual employees whose work is consistently outstanding, they are now featured each month on the front page of the company newspaper.

How are they presented? As THE PRIDE OF CANNON, of course. Some of the winners are shown above at their jobs.

This is only one of many innovative ideas of David H. Murdock, the dynamic new owner of Cannon Mills Company. He seeks to make Cannon the most modern, productive and cost-effective textile company in the U.S. He, and the people of Cannon, are working hard together to achieve that goal.

And they are doing it — if you will pardon the expression — with great pride!
